"The bus driver continued to drive under the influence of al-cohol in a dangerous manner and reached Bherai railway crossips in Railus taluka where crossing in Rajula tauluka where the greated a ruckus with the Rajula police and Home Guard personnel. The driver and passengers then assaulted railway staff at the crossing and forced them to open the barricade and sped away. Later they picked up a fight with a Bolero vehicle driver on route, we rhally abused him before stabbing him with a knile, he is incritical condition, the officer added.

According to police, a distress call was made to the Police Control Room in Ameli to end crossing in Rajula taluka where call was made to the Police Control Room in Amreli to end the joynde' after which multi-pie teams chased the vehicle. "Amreli police super-inten-dent'Niript Rai ordered check on all roads exiting Amreli and asked police to keepa watch on the bus. A police eramof Marine Pipalav police station spotted the

In Japan hospital for 8 months, Gujarat man brought back home

A MAN from Gujarat, who was a Japanese hospital for TB and stroke treatment for eight months, was brought to Ahmedabad via Delhi in an air ambulance after his family raised over Rs 40 lakh from donors online to facilitate his journey back home, his family members said on Tuesday. Jayesh Patel (33), a resident of Bhesana in Mehsana district, opyesh Patel (33) a Esstent of 8 heara in Mehsana district, was in Japan's Ota city on a work beem to when he contracted tu-berculosis (TB) in October last year and later suffered a stroke (caused due to poor blood flow to thebrain) his friends and family members said. He was admitted to a hospital in Shbukawa for the past eight months, they said. Jayesh Patel was residing in Japanalone as his wife who had gone with him to work there, returned home for the birth of their child they said.

When his father visited his hospitalisedoon, all he wanted was to bring him back to India for treatment but could not afford the cost for the same, Jayesh the cost for the same, Jayesh harels friend Mukund Patelsaid, "His family and local friends made an appeal on social media to raise Rs 1.25 crore required to bring him back by an air ambu-lance and get him treated here.

They ran campaigns on various social media platforms, created a page 'I support Jayesh Patel' on Facebook, and received overwhelming response from the public," Mukurd said.

A team of doctors from India

A team of doctors from Incla-was required to go there to ac-company him in the ambolance. A team of doctors from Ahmedabad went to Japan and under their observation Jayesh Patei was brought to Delhi by an Air India ambulance on Monday. "From there, he was flown to Ahmedabad where he was ad-mitted in a private hospital for treatment," said Mukund. Mukund said Jayesh's fin-ily was overwhelmed by the support they received from common citizens, who donaled generously, Jayesh's younger support they received from common citzens, who donated generously, Jayesh's younger brother Hardik Patel said they managed to raise Rs 41 lakh. "My brother and sister-in-law went to Japan in 2018 on work permit. While my sister-in-law returned, my brother was planning to come home in December 2020. On October S, he was diagnosed with TB and admitted to a hospital. On January 6 this year, he suffered a brain stroke and his condition deteriorated," said Hardik. "We felt he was not getting proper treatment there so we wrote to the Indian embassy in Japan and also to the Prime Minister's Office..." Hardik said.
